

Data Sharing Statement

Data

Data available: Yes

Data types: Other (please specify)

Additional Information: A deidentified dataset may be made available, commensurate with contemporary federal, state, and local laws. Data that contains personally identifiable information may be made available to those who receive approval from the applicable institutional review board at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

How to access data: If this manuscript is accepted for publication, this information will be provided, commensurate with U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention policies and procedures.

When available: With publication

Supporting Documents

Document types: None

Additional Information

Who can access the data: as noted above

Types of analyses: as noted above

Mechanisms of data availability: as noted above

Any additional restrictions: as noted above